A WORD OF THANKS!

I was deeply touched by the warm response—and the full church—when Archbishop Miller installed me formally as pastor of this parish. It was a moving liturgy in many respects, and a real occasion of unity within our community. A great missionary future awaits us at Holy Name of Jesus. A special word of thanks to the choir, which made the Mass extra-beautiful, and to the sacristan, MC, servers, and other ministers who did the same thing by their well-prepared and dignified service at the altar. And many thanks to all who helped with the lavish reception as we greeted the Archbishop in the hall, which thanks to the hard work of talented people is now “presentable” as we wait and prepare for the full-blown restoration of this important space. It is great to be here with you!
