HAPPY THANKSGIVING

Bless us, O Lord! and these Thy gifts, which we are about to receive from Thy bounty, through Christ our Lord.

As we give thanks in our homes for God's many blessings, we are grateful also for His dedicated servants in our parish . This is a good time to recognize the generous neighbours of our catechists, choirs, CWL & K of C members, Alpha leaders, hospitality ministers, flower volunteers, faith study leaders, altar servers, lectors, musicians, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Tech Team members, sacristans, and many unseen servants!

K of C PANCAKE BREAKFAST

Come downstairs next, Sunday October 20, after the 9am and 11am Masses for mouth-watering pancakes and sausages served up by our generous and hard-working Knights of Columbus.

Are you new to the parish? First-timers eat for free!

Pancake Breakfasts are every 3rd Sunday of the month.

GO AND INVITE EVERYONE TO THE BANQUET

Pope Francis' message for World Mission Sunday this year reflects on the theme: “You shall be my witnesses” (Acts 1:8).

In 1926 Pope Pius XI instituted Mission Sunday for the whole Church with the first worldwide Mission Sunday collection taking place in October 1927.

The Mission Sunday collection is always taken on the next to last Sunday during the month of October. The day is celebrated in all the local Churches as the feast of catholicity and universal solidarity so Christians the world over will recognize their common responsibility with regard to the evangelization of the world. Please be generous!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY ANNE

Our second-oldest parishioner, the remarkable Anne Trudel, turns 98 on Monday. She is a regular lector on Sundays and weekdays and encourages everyone with her radiant smile. Parishioners honoured her with a cake on Thursday, when she was the lector at Mass. Happy Birthday Anne, may God continue to bless you with good health!

OCTOBER THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY

Praying the Rosary with King David in October (by Tom Hoopes)

Fascination with David, the psalmist warrior is never-ending. One recent writer has pointed out a connection we have with him that's near at hand: the Rosary.

He is "par excellence the king 'after God's own heart.'" He is also one of the great adventure heroes of all time, beating Goliath, Saul, and countless opponents with cleverness and skill.

But more than that, he is the one who received the promise of salvation that Jesus Christ delivered on. The Rosary not only tells the story of that promise, it puts us in David's footsteps.

In addition to being a "founding father" of our salvation, David can be called the founding father of the Rosary.

David is the traditional author of the 150 Psalms, which monks prayed in sets of 50 in three cycles. Lay people wanted to join in, but with no books (or the ability to read) they prayed 150 Our Father prayers instead, keeping track of their prayers on beads. Later, the Hail Mary was added.

But one take on David and the Rosary goes a step further. When David faced Goliath, he ditched his armor and instead "selected five smooth stones from the wadi and put them in the pocket of his shepherd's bag. With sling in hand, he approached [Goliath]."

We face Goliaths in our time too, with a sling of five Our Father beads — with 10 Hail Marys added for good measure, in what Padre Pio called "the 'weapon' for these times."

But the Rosary also tells us everything we need to know about David's covenant.

The Joyful mysteries tell the tale of God raising up the new King in the Line of David that he promised.

The Annunciation is the announcement that the forever-kingdom promised to David's descendants has arrived. The Angel Gabriel is sent to Mary because she is betrothed to a man "of the house of David" and is given a child destined for the "throne of his father David."

The Visitation compares Mary to David. Luke includes many parallels between David's three-month visit to the hill country of Judah with the ark of the covenant, and Mary's three-month visit. Mary even uses words from the dawn of David's story to pray in her Magnificat.

The Nativity celebrates the newborn king, born in David's city, and the Presentation recognizes the new Messiah, "light of the nations," the "glory of Israel," "set for the rise and fall of many," and for "the redemption of Israel."

The Finding in the Temple reveals Jesus in the house that David prepared for the Lord, calling it "my Father's house."

The Luminous Mysteries show Jesus inaugurating the new Davidic kingdom.

At the Baptism in the River Jordan, the Father's voice publicly lays claim to his "Beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased," fulfilling his promise of a redeeming son.

The Wedding Feast at Cana reveals the kingdom. Jesus is a king who came to serve, and he begins his service by being as attentive to his mother as David himself.

In his Proclamation of the Kingdom, Jesus begins his preaching with "The time is fulfilled, the kingdom of God is at hand." Later, he reads a proclamation of the Davidic Messiah and says "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

The Transfiguration is a foretaste of the kingdom. In Matthew, Mark and Luke before, showing himself transfigured, Jesus promises to show a few apostles "the kingdom of God coming with power."

The Institution of the Eucharist inaugurates the kingdom. At the Last Supper, our new king from the town of David, Bethlehem — which means house of bread — directs "his disciples attention toward the fulfillment of Passover in the kingdom of God," says the Catechism.

The Sorrowful and Glorious Mysteries finish David's story in an unexpected way.

The Catechism says David models three virtues: of submission to God, repentance, and prayer. The Rosary ends with Jesus doing the same: Jesus models submission to God in the Agony in the Garden, and shows the path of repentance in the Scourging at the Pillar, then, like a king, he is Crowned with Thorns and robed in purple and Carries His Cross with a sign proclaiming him "King of the Jews." Last, Jesus is Crucified after granting a prayer to "Remember me when you come into your kingdom."

But this son of David shows that he is also the Lord of David by his Resurrection and Ascension to the right hand of the Father where "all authority is given to me". At Pentecost the Davidic Kingdom comes at last — in the Church — and Mary mother Assumed into heaven to her Coronation as the Queen Mother.

So spend some time with King David and his Great Descendant.

Without King David, there would be no Rosary — in more ways than one.
